I've got cancer

but I also have researchers who will stop at nothing until there's a cure.

The National Cancer Institute recognizes only the nation's most elite cancer centers as Comprehensive Cancer Centers for their groundbreaking research, innovative clinical trials, scientific leadership, resources, and impact on their community. Rutgers Cancer Institute of New Jersey in partnership with RWJBarnabas Health is New Jersey's only NCI-designated Comprehensive Cancer Center. But with 12 locations across the state, NCI-designated cancer care is never far from home. Visit **rwjbh.org/beatcancer** or call 844-CANCERNJ.

NEBRASKA

PISCATAWAY, N.J. - Rutgers is back in action on a short week to host Nebraska Friday night at SHI Stadium, presented by RWJBarnabas Health. The Scarlet Knights are set to suit up in all-black uniforms with black helmets for the "Blackout Game."

The Rutgers Boardwalk opens at 3 p.m. along Scarlet Knight Way and features New Jersey's best food trucks, rides, live entertainment and carnival games.

Current and former women letterwinners will be in attendance to commemorate Title IX as Rutgers Athletics celebrates the 50th anniversary of the landmark federal law throughout 2022-23. All women letterwinners will be welcomed back "On The Banks" for a pregame tailgate and join current women student-athletes and rising young women from the community in a halftime march-on to celebrate the past, present and future of women in sport. The parade, also including the Marching Scarlet Knights, cheerleaders and Scarlet Knight, will kick off the team's arrival and pep rally.

GREG SCHIANO

GREG SCHIANO, who has guided Rutgers football to a program-record five bowl championships, is in his third season back as the head football coach “On the Banks.” The Wyckoff, New Jersey, native is in his second stint with the Scarlet Knights after taking the program to new heights from 2001-11.

Schiano has directed the Scarlet Knights to seven bowl appearances, coached 90 RU players who signed NFL contracts and guided the program to the top APR score in the nation so far during his time leading Rutgers football. That hallmark of standout academic performance proved to be the difference maker in sending Rutgers to its 11th bowl berth at the 2021 TaxSlayer Gator Bowl. The 2006 National Coach of the Year owns three nine-win campaigns and coached 18 Rutgers All-America selections. His 79 overall wins are the most in school history.

RETURN TO RUTGERS

The Scarlet Knights continued to make progress in 2021 with the first 3-0 start since 2012, improving to 43-20 in non-conference games under Schiano. In Big Ten action, RU won two road games, a come-from-behind victory at Illinois that saw a late fourth-down stop and a five-touchdown triumph over Indiana, the program’s largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game.

The defense finished second in the conference in third-down conversions against, while the offense saw both WR Bo Melton (Seahawks) and RB Isiah Pacheco (Chiefs) selected in the NFL Draft. Led by All-American Adam Korsak, the punt unit set the NCAA record for net punt average (45.25). Rutgers went 5-0 when committing no turnovers, with seven from the 2021 roster earning invitations to postseason all-star games.

With just nine days’ notice, Schiano led the Scarlet Knights to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl on New Year’s Eve, battling top-20 Wake Forest in front of a national television audience of over three million on ESPN. Johnny Langan garnered Rutgers’ MVP for the game after contributing in numerous ways, as the Scarlet Knights gained valuable experience and exposure participating in the nation’s sixth-oldest bowl game.

MICKEY JOSEPH

Former Husker quarterback Mickey Joseph was named Nebraska's interim head coach on Sept. 11, 2022. Joseph is in his first season at Nebraska, originally joining the Huskers as passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach.

Joseph has nearly three decades of coaching experience, including time as a collegiate head coach at Langston University in Oklahoma. His role as NU's associate head coach is a familiar one, as he also served as assistant head coach at LSU (2020-21) and Alcorn State (2013).

Joseph was a key part of LSU's 2019 national championship staff. His receivers helped the Tigers set an FBS record with 60 touchdown receptions, while helping Joe Burrow rank third in FBS history in season passing yards (5,671).

Joseph has a proven track record of recruiting and developing wide receivers. Recognized as a Rivals Top 25 Recruiter, Joseph had four wide receivers selected in the first three rounds of the past two NFL Drafts (2020 and 2021). That includes Ja'Marr Chase, who was the 2021 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year after being selected with the No. 5 overall pick.

Joseph came to Nebraska from LSU, where he coached for five seasons and helped the Tigers to the 2019 national championship. Joseph was responsible for developing some of the nation's top receivers during his time with the Tigers.

In 2019, LSU assembled the best group of receivers in SEC history. The Tigers' three starters—Ja'Marr Chase, Justin Jefferson and Terrace Marshall—combined for 241 receptions for 3,991 yards and 51 touchdowns.

Chase was the 2019 Biletnikoff Award winner, earned first-team All-America honors and set SEC records for receiving yards and receiving touchdowns. Jefferson set the LSU record with 111 receptions. Overall, Joseph coached four receivers selected in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft during his time at LSU, including Chase, the fifth pick in the 2021 Draft and Jefferson, the 22nd pick in the 2020 NFL Draft.

» KNIGHTS - in the - PROS

Rutgers football has established a strong pipeline to the National Football League with 17 Scarlet Knights on rosters ahead of the 2022 season. Fourteen former Rutgers football standouts appeared for their respective teams last fall, while five Scarlet Knights - Michael Burton (Kansas City), Clark Harris (Cincinnati), Sebastian Joseph-Day (Los Angeles Rams), Devin McCourty (New England) and Mohamed Sanu (San Francisco) - helped their teams advance to the 2021 playoffs. Harris and Joseph-Day competed against one another in Super Bowl LVI to close out the season, as Joseph-Day hoisted the Lombardi Trophy - becoming the 16th former Rutgers football standout to do so. In the offseason, Bo Melton (Seattle) and Isiah Pacheco (Kansas City) were selected in the 2022 NFL Draft, while teammates Tre Avery (Tennessee), Olakunle Fatukasi (Tampa Bay) and Tyreek Maddox-Williams (Los Angeles Chargers) signed as undrafted free agents.

WEEK 4 NFL RECAP

Nine Scarlet Knights logged snaps during Week 4 of the NFL season. RB Isiah Pacheco shined for Kansas City in its victory over Tampa Bay on Sunday Night Football, rushing 12 times for 62 yards and adding 91 yards on three kickoff returns in the win.
